

I am very pleased with the current NJ Do Not Call program, and would be very upset if the federal government looked to changing it, and oppose it in every avenue available to me.